9:00 am—9:00 pm each day

Snider Ag Arena, Penn State University
Corner of Park Avenue & Fox Hollow Road

Book Sale Volunteers Ready to Roll

Sally Heffentreyer arranges books with care on "Move-in Night" for the 2016 sale.

Hello! The book sale will be here in a few short weeks, and we're excited. Last year the sale netted $143,821, supporting our mission to advance equity for women and girls. Donations at our Used Book Workshop at 176 Technology Drive in Boalsburg ran high, and we will bring over 4,000 boxes—about 250,000 books — to the sale this year. The overall quality of this year's is superb. The volunteer schedule on page 3-5 is the version available as of April 24. Mark your calendar for the shift(s) you committed to.

Need to Change Your Shift?

If you have to cancel or change your shift, it is important that you contact volunteer scheduler Nancy Eberly immediately at nanceberly@hotmail.com, (717) 945-2895. We'll need to find your replacement, and the more time we have, the better our chances are of finding one. If you must cancel during the sale, call the Ag Arena at 863-0600 to notify those at the Hospitality/Info table.

Follow Color-Coded Table Signs to Locate Departments

Category signs on tables are color-coded to make it easier to direct customers to the subject matter they want, matching our Ag Arena color-coded maps.

Work Hard AND Have Fun...on Move-In Night!

On Thursday, May 10, from 4:30 pm until the last truck is unloaded, volunteers who are able carry 25-lb. boxes from the trucks to the tables at the Ag Arena, while others unpack and arrange books on tables. A boxed meal will be provided halfway through the evening. Volunteers interested in purchasing books at the end of the evening may bring one box or grocery bag to fill.

Where the Money Goes

Net proceeds from the book sale fund 1) scholarships to local returning adult women students 2) programs and projects of local community groups that reflect the AAUW mission, and 3) research and legal advocacy efforts of AAUW national.

From our humble book sale beginnings in 1962 when we raised $179.17, we have made a remarkable impact with the dollars we've raised. Over the past 25 years alone, we have awarded more than a million dollars to local non-profits. Gross sales over each of the past several years have exceeded $120,000, a trend we hope to continue.

Thank you for your efforts on the Used Book Sale. They embrace the AAUW State College mission to advance equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy and research.

BOOK SALE VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION

- Parking at the Ag Arena is free.

ALL VOLUNTEERS:

- Please report to the Hospitality/Info Table in the Ag Arena Lobby 10-15 minutes prior to your shift to pick up an apron, name tag and assignment.
- Purses may be stored in the Conference Room, but be sure not to bring valuables.
- Water and snacks are available in the Conference Room. (The food in the kitchen is for sale by CFFA.) Please bring your own bottled water in the event that it is difficult to leave your volunteer location.
- If you need to take a short break be sure to inform a nearby volunteer first.
- AAUW membership information is located on the AAUW table next to the side exit.

TABLE VOLUNTEERS:

- Please note attached to your name tag will be the table categories that you are to straighten.
- Please straighten any books on the table and place any books in boxes on the table with the spine facing up.
- Take empty boxes to the back of the Ag Arena. Please keep the box and lid together.
- Place the box on the available truck or by the large roll-up door.
- Keep your area as organized as possible.

- Please ask someone in charge if there is no price on the book.
- Monday-Half-Price Day; Tuesday-Bag Day ($7)

CASHIERS:

- The sale only accepts cash or checks. There is an ATM located across the street at the visitor center.
- We don't charge sales tax.
- Please give the customers the adding machine receipt; they need this to exit the building.
- AAUW members from the counting room will come by periodically to take large bills and resupply your cash.
- Shoppers may not leave with tomato boxes or lids or egg boxes. Please put their purchases in bags provided if they haven't brought their own bag.
- Tomato boxes and lids and egg boxes are the property of AAUW, reused each year. Customers will be given bags for their purchases, but encourage them to bring their own reusable bags and boxes next year.
- To hold bags and boxes temporarily, mark "PAID" or "NOT PAID" on the bags in large black letters. Do not use the word "SOLD" or "NOT SOLD." There is a marker in your cash box. Store bags under your table or on the bleachers behind you.
- No books can be stored overnight, and absolutely no books can be stored during Bag Day unless they are paid for in advance.
- Unsold books will be recycled at the end of the sale.
- Ask customers if they would like a bookmark advertising next year's sale, and thank them for supporting AAUW with their purchase.
- All shoppers are asked to exit via the SIDE door of the Ag Arena, next to the kitchen.

Leslie Laing and daughter Elana bonded while working on Mother's Day weekend last year. Volunteers wear blue aprons in order to be identified by shoppers.

SAFETY REGULATIONS:

- Penn State safety regulations limit the total number of people in the Ag Arena at any one given time to 450 people. This protects shopper safety and increases shopper enjoyment and we must adhere to this.
- Shoppers will not be permitted to store books temporarily on the sale perimeter as this prevents full access to the exits in the event of an emergency. Please help us reinforce this by reminding shoppers of this regulation.

Book Sale
Volunteers:

THANK YOU!

Hospitality/Info Table Volunteers

GREET VOLUNTEERS first by checking off his/her name off on the master list affixed to the table. If any volunteer does not show for his/her shift, write NS after their name(s).

GETTING STARTED—Provide volunteer with an apron, name tag, refreshments location, and assignment. Some volunteers are scheduled for either floor or cashier duties. Work with the responsible chairs for that day's sale to learn where to assign either/or volunteers. Please remind cashiers to learn how their adding machines work, especially doing subtotals, which some dealers request, and managing the decimal points.

BAGS AND PACKAGES—Patrons may leave their umbrellas, large bags, or other large packages with you to be placed on the large table behind you. Give them one number, for example 15, and place the other number 15 with their items.

DIVISION OF DUTIES—Determine which volunteer will use the counter to count entering patrons and which will welcome patrons as they enter and respond to their questions. Rather than remaining seated behind the info/hospitality table, stand beside it to greet patrons and be accessible.

CATEGORY SIGNS on tables are color-coded to make it easier to direct customers to the subject matter they want. Our large Ag Arena maps are likewise color-coded. Familiarize yourself with the different sections to make it easier to help customer.

BRANCH INFO TABLE AND MORE—Familiarize yourself with locations of the branch's display board which has membership materials, food and ice cream sales, rest rooms, book categories, refreshments for volunteers, and more. Since the branch's display board will be located across the lobby from you, monitor the supply of materials provided there. Extra membership materials and other info sheets are located beneath the table.

MAKING CHANGE—When a cashier/packer pair asks for change; learn which station they are staffing and indicate that you will request it for them. Knock on the Conference Room door, request the money needed and determine that a counting room volunteer will take it to the cashier/packer pair on the floor. If counting room volunteers are meeting a deadline, you may be asked to take the money out to the cashier/packer pair.

TUESDAY BAG DAY—One info table volunteer will be responsible for distributing plastic bags to those who forgot to bring one to Bag Day. Depending on the thickness of the plastic bags, you may have to provide double bags to patrons.

GIVE SOMEONE A BREAK—You may be asked to provide a break for a cashier, a packer, a door monitor, or a table worker. Please review their duties to prepare for that event.

ANSWER THE TELEPHONE, which will be in the pass-through window behind you.
